

01-04-2014

Daniel Hallberg joins Via Venture Partners

Via Venture Partners has, as part of a continued increased focus on Swedish private equity investments, hired Daniel Hallberg to join VIA as Principal. Daniel starts with VIA as of April 1st and will work out of the firm's Copenhagen office.

Via Venture Partners has during the last couple of years increased its focus on the buy-out segment with great success. To further strengthen this focus in Sweden VIA is pleased to announce the hiring of Daniel Hallberg who is joining VIA as Principal.

Daniel, who is a candidate from the Lund Institute of Technology and the Lund School of Economics, brings significant experience of Nordic private equity investments through his 7 years of experience with the Swedish investment fund manager Scope Capital and valuable operational experience through his experience working as a consultant with Booz & Company.

As part of joining VIA the entire Hallberg family has just recently moved south from Stockholm, and Daniel will now work out of VIA's Copenhagen office in close corporation with the entire VIA team focusing on Swedish buy-out deals.

For additional information, please contact:

Daniel Hallberg, principal, +45 2466 3150

Or

John Helmsøe-Zinck, managing partner, +45 4010 4405